Fund Data

Investment Policy

The Fund invests in a growth component and a capital preservation component. Depending on the market situation, there is a shift between the two components. The following applies: The further the unit value is above the guaranteed value, the higher the share of the growth component as a rule. Conversely, if the unit value is close to the guaranteed value, the share of the capital preservation component increases. Please refer to the prospectus. The investment universe is among others defined by environmental and social aspects and principles of good corporate governance. The fund is actively managed.

Fund Management's Comment

In March, there were some significant corrections on the global equity markets. US equities in particular recorded a major setback due to mixed economic and inflation data and a US trade policy that was perceived as erratic. In contrast, European equities performed somewhat better. The modification of the debt brake in the German constitution to allow extensive investment in infrastructure and defense improved the economic outlook for Germany and Europe for the coming years. The adoption of the planned debt program led to a rise in yields on German government bonds over the course of the month. The price of gold continued to rise, while the price of oil remained constant. The EUR appreciated significantly, particularly against the USD. Below is an overview of selected indices:
MSCI World Index (USD): -4.6%,
MSCI World Index (EUR): -8.3%,
EURO STOXX 50 Index: -3.8%,
S&P 500 Index (USD): -5.8%,
Nikkei 225 Index (JPY): -4.1%,
Bloomberg Commodity TR Index (EUR): -0.1%,
The current yield on German government bonds rose from 2.3% to 2.5%. The portion of risky investments was around 60% at the end of the month.
